Tokyo Weekender

Vol. 22, No. 35 September 20, 1991

DANCE

LINDSAY KEMP COMPANY Oct. 4 & 5, 7 p.m.; 6, 2 p.m. at Kan-i Hoken Hall in Gotanda. Tickets: ¥6,000-¥12,000. Ballet, opera, rock 'n' roll, Shakespeare plays, mime, film, art...a troupe with all-encompassing skills puts on "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

GRAN ORQUESTA DEL TANGO ARGENTINO Oct. 6, 7 p.m. at Suntory Hall. Tickets: ¥7,000, ¥6,000, ¥5,000. Call Pia, 5237-9990. Conducted by Carlos Garcia and featuring singer Hernan Salinas. Dance couples Monica and Victor Ayos and Los Valenzuela perform regularly abroad.

SPAIN NATIONAL BALLET Oct. 11, 12, 6:30 p.m.; 13, 1:30 & 6:30 p.m. at Bunkamura Orchard Hall. Tickets: ¥4,000-11,000. Call Pia, 5237-9990.

ASAMI MAKI BALLET Oct. 19, 6:30 p.m.; 20, 2 p.m. at Kan-i Hoken Hall. Tickets: ¥3,000-¥9,000. Call Pia, 5237-9999. Ballet troupe celebrates 35th anniversary with "La Fille Mal Gardée" choreographed by Frederick Ashton.

ART

MAYUMI IWADE Gallery Miharaya, 1-4-6 Ginza, Chuo-ku. Tel. 3564- 4466. Thru Sept. 21. Works using paper, ink, pastels and brushes.

KOREAN PRINTS EXHIBITION Gallery Jinguen, 3-14-17 Jingu-mae, Shibuya-ku, Tokyo. Tel. 3470-7732. Thru Sept. 24. Ten Korean artists in their 20s and 30s have been selected for the exhibition.

NOBUYUKI OHURA INAX Gallery 2, 3-6-18 Kyobashi, Chuo-ku. Tel. 3562-1998. Thru Sept. 28. Sculptures using iron and wood.

MASAAKI YAMADA Satani Gallery, Daini Asahi Bldg., B1, 4-2-6 Ginza Chuo-ku. Tel. 3564-6733. His paintings from the late '70s.

KEN DONE Daimaru Museum, Daimaru Dept. Store, 1-9-1 Marunouchi, Chiyoda-ku. Tel. 3212-8001. Thru Sept. 24. The Australian artist selects about 50 of his latest works (oil and acrylic paintings).

Koichi Kurita

Jose Joven

KOICHI KURITA, "Recent Landscapes" Gallery Hosomi, Toshikane Bldg. 3F, 6-5-17 Roppongi, Minato-ku. Tel. 3497-1328. Thru Sept. 27. By using a 8x10 inch-camera, Kurita shows us the magical world of nature invisible to the naked eyes.

ALICE, ALICE, ALICE Clifford Gallery at Shibuya Parco 1 (8F). Tel. 3496-1287. Thru Sept. 30. The collection of paintings, drawings, photos etc. inspired by the famous Alice books.

JOSE JOVEN Gallery Art Point, New Komparu Bldg. 1F, 7-7-12 Ginza, Chuo-ku. Tel. 3574-6360. Thru Sept. 30. A young, promising Spanish artist's first solo exhibit in Tokyo. His unique use of wax on hand-made Spanish paper shouldn't be overlooked.

TOM HAAR Gallery Saka, 9-5-12 Akasaka, Minato-ku. Tel. 3401-6446. Sept. 25-Oct. 6.

ART AND PUBLICITÉ The Sezon Museum of Art, Seibu Dept. Store in Ikebukuro. Tel. 5992-0155. Thru Nov. 4. Examining advertisements as "art" from the late 19th century to the 1960s.

EVENTS

CITY NOTES

1ST INTERNATIONAL GOODWILL JUNIOR YACHT REGATA Boys and girls aged 9 through 16 are invited to participate in a junior yacht race at Wakasu Yacht Kunren Center at Wakasu Kaihin Koen in Koto- ku on Sept. 22. The entry fee of ¥3,000 includes lunch and a party Tokyo 105. Tel. 3289-2461. Fax. 3289-1790.

7TH ALL JAPAN DANCE CONTEST A great opportunity to show off your dance skills. Jazz, soul, funk, break, tap, ballet, modern...choreograph your own one-minute maximum routine. The contest is open to everyone, solo or group (less than five people). Preliminaries will be held on Sept. 21

WORLD TOKAI MASTERS An exciting, international soccer match will be held at the National Stadium near Sendagaya Sta. on Oct.6. Big-name players will represent All-Europe and All-South America. Some of the stars include (for Europe) Cabrini, Tigana, Milla, Schumacher, (for South America) Fillol, Socrates, Rivelino, Oscar. Kickoff: 1 p.m. Advance tickets priced at ¥2,000-5,500 are available from vided by the Tourist Information Center.

SHOGA MATSURI (Ginger-root Festival) Thru Sept. 21 at Shiba Daijingu Shrine, Minato-ku, a few minutes walk from Daimon Sta. on the Toei Asakusa Line. The festival is also known as "Dara- Dara Matsuri." Open-air stalls sell fresh ginger-roots from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

the Children's Fife and Drum Corps, followed by eight large lantern floats will proceed from JR Tanmachi Station through Yokohama Station's west exit to the Daiei Shopping Center. A series of other crowd-pleasers including a portable shrine procession, and an Akita Kanto Matsuri (where one person balances a 12-meter bamboo pole on which 46 lanterns are